

Sanjay Asher

Partner

M/s. Crawford Bayley & Co.

Advocates & Solicitors

4th Floor, State Bank of India Buildings

NGN Vaidya Marg,

Fort, Mumbai 400 023

India

Tel: +91 22 2266 8000

Fax: +91 22 2266 3978

Email: sanjay.asher@crawfordbayley.com

He is a Senior Partner at the law firm M/s. Crawford Bayley & Co.

He is a Solicitor and a Chartered Accountant. He has over 23 years' experience in the field of M & A, cross border M & A, joint ventures, capital markets. Has been advising large, medium and small business enterprise on these subjects.

He is a Member of the Primary Market Advisory Committee set up by SEBI to make recommendations to SEBI on policy matters pertaining to development of primary market in India.

He is a Member of Corporate Bonds and Securitization Advisory Sub-Committee set up by SEBI to specify disclosure and other requirements for issuance and listing of Municipal Bonds.

He was an invitee to the committee formed by the Government of India, Department of Disinvestment for the purposes of standardising the transaction documents in relation to privatisation of the public sector enterprises of the Government of India.

He was member of what was described as Project Fire (Financial Institutions Reform Empowerment) for the purpose of development of "Securities Law Bar in India". The Project was a Indo-US joint project aided by World Bank. Members of the Project FIRE included Lawyers, US Lawyers and Executive Directors of Securities Exchange Board of India.

He has been a speaker at various seminars and conferences including organized by Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, Institute of Chartered Secretaries of India, Bombay Chamber of Commerce and Industry, Indian Merchant Chambers, International Financial Law Review.

He has authored several publication published in national and international publications.