Thane police's new website can be used by visually impaired

Thane: The new website of the Thane city police can be read by those with visual impairment too, an official said. The refurbished site which contains complete details of every police station in the city was unveiled on Tuesday. One of its features is that it can be accessed by visually impaired persons too, said assistant police inspector Vishal Chitnis of the police's social media cell. -AGENCIES

Torch Morcha: Uran police book organiser, 750 protesters

Case registered for unlawful assembly after protest over renaming of Navi Mumbai airport

AMIT SRIVASTAVA amit.srivastava@fpj.co.in

The Uran police have registered an FIR against 750 protesters, including senior members of Navi Mumbai All-Party Action Committee (NMAPAC), for allegedly holding the Mashal March (Torch Morcha) on August 9 in Jasai village and other parts of the city without permission. The Navi Mumbai police had even issued them a notice under CrPC Section 149 (unlawful assembly) that prevents gathering of more than five people.

Under the banner of NMA-PAC, thousands of villagers held the morcha in Navi Mumbai, Thane, Palghar and Raigad districts to put pressure on the state government to name the proposed Navi Mumbai International Airport (NMIA) after late activist DB Patil. However, they did not have police permission for the assembly.

As per the FIR, the case has been registered against Dashrath Patil, Prashant Thakur, Ramseth Thakur, Panvel mayor Kavita Chautmal, amongst others. The case has been registered under sections 141, 341, 188, 269, and 270 of the Indian Penal Code, section 11 of Maharashtra Covid-19 Regulations, and sections 37(1)(3)135 of the Maharashtra Police Act. The protesting villagers had also threatened to stop the ongoing airport work from August 16 if the state government does not accept their demand.

According to a senior police official, a case was registered against 24 office-bearers of NMAPAC and around 700 to 750 people who joined the morcha across the city.

PRADHAN MANTRI GARIB KALYAN ANNA YOJANA

Free ration eludes Mira Bhayandar cardholders

SURESH GOLANI suresh.golani@fpi.co.in

> In an attempt to mitigate the hardships and economic distress caused to citizens due to the Covid-19 pandemic and the subsequent lockdowns, the cengovernment had tral launched the Pradhan Mantri Garib Kalyan Anna Yojana (PM-GKAY). The scheme ensured extra provision of five kilograms of food grain free of cost per person. However, thousands of cardholders living in the twin-city of Mira-Bhayandar are still waiting to get the grains for the past one month, exposing the apathy of central authorities. There are 106 fair price shops (FPS) that cater to the rationing needs of around 48,000 cardholders living in the twin-city. According to some card holders, they were receiving the food grains till June, but FPS operators have now been expressing their helplessness in providing free grains owing to glitches in the supply mechanism.

When contacted, rationing officer Jitendra Patil said, "Yes, there has been a delay in supplies. However, we are in the process of completing the July backlog and have been regularly following up with our higher-ups and expect to streamline the supply by the end of AURANGABAD: With the Maharashtra government for parking and charging of eannouncing its electric vehi-vehicles in the amenities area cle (EV) policy recently, the area dedicated for parking and charging of such vehicles along the upcoming Mumbai-Nagpur Samruddhi Expressway has been increased five-fold, a senior official said on Wednesday. The state government had last month announced its new EV policy with an aim of making such vehicles achieve 10 per cent share of total registrations by 2025. The new policy updated the one announced in 2018. "Nearly 70 per cent civil work of the 701-km long Samruddhi Expressway has been completed. The amenities of fuel stations and electric vehicle charging stations will be made operational simultaneously with the highway," Joint MD of Maharashtra State Road Development Corporation (MSRDC), Chandrakant Pulkundwar, told the media. The highway has been officially named as Hindu Hridaysamrat Balasaheb Thackeray Samruddhi Mahamarg.
